

The Supreme Court Immigration Case

US V TX

What the Supreme Court will Review

1

Reason to Sue

Standing: do Texas and the states that joined the lawsuit have a just reason to sue? The states will have to demonstrate that they will be harmed by the immigration executive order.

2

Following the Law

Does the executive order violate federal law?

3

Rule-Making

Did the President follow the right steps when he announced the executive order? In certain situations, "notice and comment procedures" must be followed. This would require publishing a note in the Federal Register and seeking comments from the public. Did the President need to follow the notice and comment procedures?

4

Take Care Clause

The President must take care that laws are carried out. Are immigration laws being fulfilled through the executive order?
