

The Supreme Court Immigration Case

Supreme Court - What Could Happen

Supreme Court Steps

Review All Cases

Choose a Case to Review

Read the Amicus Briefs

Hold the Oral Argument

Meet in Conference

Explain the Decision

Write the Opinion

Release the Opinion

This court case, U.S. v. Texas, will be decided by the Supreme Court Justices. A majority ruling (five or more Justices) in favor of the U.S. must be made for DAPA and expanded DACA to survive. In any circumstance, we hope to see more opportunities for immigrants soon.

Who are the decision makers?

Alito Thomas Breyer Kennedy Roberts Sotomayor Kagan Bader Ginsburg

Supreme Court Justices are nominated by the President and then the Senate votes to confirm the person. A Supreme Court Justice can hold this position for life as long as the Justice has good behavior.

Outcomes - to be announced in June

5 or more votes in favor of the U.S.:

DAPA and expanded DACA will soon be made available

OR

5 or more votes against the U.S.:

DAPA and expanded DACA will not be available

OR

A Tie vote (4-4)

*More legal actions can be taken with this case

DAPA and expanded DACA will remain blocked

Contact Us: